

Disclaimer

The advice, facts, statements and opinions (the "information") contained in the International Property Tax and Assessment Database (the "Database") are of a general nature and have been compiled from various sources by the International Property Tax Institute ("IPTI"). It is not to be considered as professional or legal advice. We therefore strongly recommend that you always consult a suitably qualified professional to obtain specific advice.

The Database and its affiliate sites (the "Sites") are provided on an 'as is' basis without warranties of any kind, either express or implied, including but not limited to warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purposes.

IPTI does not endorse nor is responsible for the reliability, completeness, accuracy or timeliness of the information contained in the Database or the Site. IPTI fully and without reserve disclaims any and all liability for any and all loss or damage including, without limitation, indirect or consequential loss or damage, arising out of, or in connection with the use of the Database and the Sites.

INTERNATIONAL PROPERTY TAX INSTITUTE
100 Sheppard Avenue E. Suite 880, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M2N 6N5
Telephone: (416) 228-8874 Fax: (416) 644-5152
info@ipti.org
www.ipti.org

Providing Access to Vital Information on International Property Tax and Assessment

Featuring:

- Internationally renowned Editorial and Advisory Board Members
- User-friendly searches
- A single source for comprehensive country-specific information
- Legal framework and operational aspects
- Contributions from international scholars provide comprehensive coverage on practical concepts
- A compendium of terms, definitions, explanations of concepts, processes and acronyms
- Authored and peer-reviewed
- On-line internal hyperlinks to additional entries and current standards
- Countries added on a continual basis

IPTIpedia - Think Globally, Act Locally

IPTIpedia - Reliable and Comprehensive Property Tax and Assessment Information for the Global Property Assessment and Tax Professional
The International Property Tax Institute (IPTI) has compiled a one-stop resource providing property tax and assessment data and information on an international level for the global executive. This consolidated database allows property tax professionals requiring background information on tax and assessment methodologies across international borders to better understand local practices and manage their global portfolios.

IPTIpedia provides easy on-line access to country-specific information, including:

- Description of property tax system
- Key legislative references
- Property subject to taxation
- Exemptions from taxation
- Assessment value standard
- Assessment/taxation responsibility
- Compliance and reporting requirements
- Appeal procedures and deadlines
- Incentive and tax relief programs
- Comments on local practices
- Links to useful websites

Paul Sanderson, Director of Professional Services, Valuation Office Agency, London, England says that IPTIpedia provides easy to understand answers to the most critical questions on property tax and assessment for countries around the world.

The compilation and integrity of this data is maintained through various sources including members of the International Property Tax Institute, IPTIpedia's Global Research Advisory Panel, IPTIpedia Advisory Professionals, World Bank Reports, Lincoln Institute of Land Policy, AEC International Inc., Rethink Solutions Inc. and independent research materials.

IPTIpedia currently provides a consolidated source of property tax and assessment information for the following countries:

- | | | | |
|------------------|-------------|------------------------------|-----------------|
| • Australia | • Finland | • Malaysia | • Russia |
| • Barbados | • France | • Mexico | • Scotland |
| • Belgium | • Germany | • Netherlands | • Singapore |
| • Brazil | • Hong Kong | • New Zealand | • Slovenia |
| • Canada | • India | • Nigeria | • South Africa |
| • Chile | • Indonesia | • Northern Ireland | • South Korea |
| • Croatia | • Italy | • Pakistan | • Spain |
| • Czech Republic | • Japan | • Peoples' Republic of China | • Sweden |
| • England | • Latvia | • Poland | • United States |
| • Estonia | • Lithuania | • Republic of Ireland | • Wales |

Maintaining Data Integrity

The International Property Tax Institute's Advisory Professionals (APs) are international property tax and assessment experts. From both the public and private sectors, the APs assist in obtaining and updating information relevant to current tax regimes and practices in their respective jurisdictions. Data is updated on a regular basis and countries are being continuously added. To ensure the consistency, accuracy and integrity of the information is maintained, all changes and updates submitted are monitored, reviewed and verified by the IPTIpedia Editorial Board. The IPTIpedia Editorial Board is comprised of some of the foremost property tax experts in the world and oversees a carefully selected Global Research Advisory Panel of tax professionals based in each region, ensuring that IPTIpedia remains a current and reliable source of unbiased property tax data and information.

Property Tax Executives say that IPTIpedia is..

- "... an excellent source of property tax information for the international user"- Doug Turner, Director of Property Taxes, General Electric, USA
- "... a valuable reference guide for property tax practitioners"- Dave Stewart, Vice President, Property Tax & Insurance, Ivanhoe Cambridge, Canada

Annual Subscription Fees and IPTIpedia Access

IPTIpedia is available as a benefit of being a member of the International Property Tax Institute. Annual subscriptions can be purchased by non members. (visit www.ipti.org for membership information). It is accessed via IPTI's homepage or from its own domain at wiki.ipti.org. The homepage, viewable by all users, contains a brief description of the contents and other useful information. A username and password will be emailed to the subscriber, enabling immediate log-in.

Annual subscription fees:

Type	Annual Subscription Fee
Non-Member Annual Subscription	$350 USD